Synopsis Books:

A Knitters Home Companion is an illustrated collection of stories, patterns, and recipes from beloved knitter and essayist Michelle Edwards. This heartwarming title will appeal to knitters interested in not only stitches, yarn, and patterns, but also in the lives of other knitters, the lessons that can be learned from their craft, the ways knitting helps knitters cope during difficult times, and the role of knitting in family life. Let this book keep you company when you need another knitter's voice beside you, Edwards writes in her introduction.

Like a good friend, A Knitters Home Companion will inspire readers to laugh, cry, remember, be thoughtful, cook, and, of course, pick up their needles sometimes to soothe, sometimes to celebrate, and sometimes to just pass the time. Divided into four chapters: Motherhood, Home, Community, and Legacy, stories range from But She Doesn't Have Any Underpants, about the challenges of knitting for family to Home Ec Workshop and The Mystery of the Indian Slipper, about finding community at a local yarn shop. Projects range from mittens and socks to a baby blanket and afghan.

Praise for A Knitter's Home Companion:

"This charming book is like reading a letter from your best friend . . . The recipes, beautiful drawings, anecdotes, and helpful hints on every aspect of our favorite craft . . . will bring a smile to your face and a comfort to your soul."

- Love of Knitting

"These reflections on knitting will resonate with knitters of all stripes. Charming stories supplemented by delightful patterns and recipes open a window to a knitter's inner life . . . From here, straight through to the end of the book you will feel a personal connection to this author who knits to celebrate, soothe and pass the time."

- Knitch Magazine

This is a charming and utterly alluring book that makes you want to cook and knit and have a little chat about the kids. I love Michelle Edwards' drawings, and the design of the book is an artwork in itself. This is a book you want to buy for yourself, and maybe to give to a few close friends, as well. Jane Smiley, Author of many novels and knitter of many sweaters

A cozy and charming collection of essays about the joys of knitting complete with lovely patterns and yummy recipes to leave you feeling warm and inspired. Kate Jacobs, Author of Friday Night Knitting Club series and Comfort Food

Michelle Edwards' writing reminds me of a simpler time when I grew up in a small town where family was the center of everything. When I read her stories, I think about the legacy I am leaving to my daughter by teaching her the craft that I love so much and what a treasure a handmade gift really is. Beyond the delightful and heartwarming stories, the patterns, and the recipes is a wonderful message about what is really most important in life. Vanna White

"It was Edwards' love of knitting and her desire to find a nurturing community that led to her newest book, A Knitter's Home Companion, which is a love song that she's written to knitting and the process of forming a community around her lifelong passion of shaping strands of wool into hats, scarves, sweaters, socks, mittens, and even egg warmers."
