Synopsis Books:

Jennifer Corelli, an ambitious twenty-something rookie reporter for the tabloid New York Daily, wants nothing more than to be taken seriously as a journalist, but she's stuck covering socialite parties in the Hamptons in the column About Last Night as the catty, but always entertaining Ms. X.

On top of that, she's asked to babysit, mentor the summer interns: 1) India Calloway, former child model and daughter of Tony Award-winning stage actress Olivia Calloway; and 2) the handsome and arrogant Connor O'Reilly, son of Senator O'Reilly. Seeing an opportunity for a series of socialite exposés that could finally convince her editor that she's a real journalist, Jennifer orders them to go undercover so she can out the darker side of the glamorous lives of the glitserati.

With two insiders dishing the dirt on the elite, Jennifer is determined to be a success despite the hate and backlash. But when the scandals hit too close to home, Jennifer must decide how far she will go for a scoop.
