Synopsis Books:

Breanne Sullivans world has been turned upside down. In the midst of an investigation surrounding her husband, Breanne returns to the corporate world she left years ago to raise her children. Now, a required business trip places her on Innovation Airways maiden flight sitting next to pitching sensation and self-proclaimed bachelor, Drew Scott.

Drew is charismatic, devastatingly handsome and has never encountered a woman he couldnt have. That is, until he meets Breanne, whose attempts to deny the intense attraction they share only fuels Drews determination not to take no for an answer. But when the flight veers off-course and an unfathomable sequence of events forces them to rely on each other in a race for their lives, intentions quickly change. High-tech travel turns into a game of survival that invites temptation and threatens to push their desires over the edge.

Hes a tempting distraction she has to resist. Shes an unexpected challenge hes determined to have at least once. The question is, if she gives in will he be able to let her go?
