Synopsis Books:

In the Beginning is a collection of three stories intended for readers of The Dark Citadel curious to know more about the dark world of Providence and the harsh desert wastes surrounding it.

Of Dreams and Horses tells how Rachel discovers the magic and the burden of the Memory. Plucked from the clutches of the Protector, she is set on a path of discovery and creation that leads to a bittersweet destiny.

Fathers and Brothers is about Hector, his childhood introduction to cruelty and loss at the hands of his father, and how Abaddons choice falls upon this small, broken creature to be his instrument.

Jonahs Story tells of another child with a tragic childhood, but unlike Hector, Jonahs humanity is not snatched from him: it matures and grows in the solitude of the desert, until the time comes to fulfil his destinyhelping another to fulfil hers.
