Synopsis Books:

Seventeen-year-old Autumn Teslow arrives at her fathers job fair knowing shell never measure up to the perfect image of daddys little girlher twin sister.

Wearing anger management issues like a second skin wont help Autumn win her dads approval for the big trip shes been planningor meet his condition that she successfully complete a summer internship for college.

Autumns cool unravels when her sister lectures against disappointing the family again. And when a young, bearded guy steps through the crowd to settle the growing argument between siblings, Autumn lashes out, dubbing him a Duck Dynasty wannabe.

At Nineteen, Caden Behr is clueless as to why his man parts are threatened by the fearsome girl before him. He'd only come to find an intern for his recreational equipment company, not break up a girl-fight between two sisters.

Unfortunately, the only candidate left is the girl who just told him off. Without her, hell never prove to his CEO mother that hes ready for more responsibility.

Autumn and Caden agree that if they can keep from killing one another, they can use one another to get what they want and then never have to see each other again. Which is what they want.

Until it isnt.

Because despite her best efforts to scare him off, and his fading desire to push her into the lake, theyre beginning to enjoy the time they spend together. But pride is a hard habit to break. And if neither will admit their changing feelings, they could lose a whole lot more than one summer.
