Just when you think you have it all figured out...life happens!

Savannah Burgesson wanted nothing more than to continue the success of her Houston based consulting business, be completely in control of her sexual rendezvous with a plethora of one night stands, and to enjoy her beautiful Texas ranch. Her plan was working well until the day of her fortieth birthday, when she decided her extremely sexy assistant, Charleston Voss, was going to be the next notch on her belt. Charleston being only twenty eight had no chance of breaking her heart...or so she thought!

Their undeniable connection spins out of control and catches both of them off guard, which leads to love, deceit, heartbreak, soul searching, intense sex, running from the past, and chasing the future!

Both Savannah and Charleston have many ghosts from the past to overcome but she never in a million years thought that her past would collide with her present and threaten everything she has grown to desire! The question isn't if Savannah and Charleston love each other, the question is does love really conquer all? Will she realize that she needs him as much as he needs her? Will they both live to find out?
