Synopsis Books:

This second volume of the Collected Works presents three early novels:

Days and Nights, a semi-autobiographical novel whose protagonist deserts everyday life by all means available dream, drugs, hallucination and a strange erotic quest: the pursuit of The Double".

Exploits and Opinions of Doctor Faustroll, Pataphysician, Jarrys masterpiece, in which Pataphysics, the science of imaginary solutions, is presented and applied.

Absolute Love, the strangest of Jarrys novels, in which he explores an entirely new dramatic scenario, the discovery that ones mother is a virgin".
