Kendra Roberts doesnt believe that love exists in the real world. At least not the forever kind. So imagine her surprise when she realizes shes been in a relationship for two years. How did that happen?

Kendra doesnt know the how but she knows it cant go on so she cuts Adam Burger loose. While in New York consoling a friend after a devastating heartbreak Kendra realizes just how lucky shed been with love, the love she didnt think existed. Then panic throws her into a full nuclear meltdown when Adam tries to move on and start dating someone else.

Convincing herself its the right decision is easy. Shes always been good at hiding the truth until she cant hide from herself any longer. Even better her best friends wedding pushes them together again and again giving her the opportunity to make things right. If she can get Adam to believe that she is Up for Forever, the forever he always wanted, her life will be on track. If not, then shell never have the life she truly wants.
